GENERAL DATA

Category: Documentary archival

Description:

Document on a handwritten page in italic script, original (not a copy or facsimile), with original signature and rubrics. On recto side, there is a note at the top, written by Matías Villarán, which reads:

"Duplicado" ("Duplicate") and "Anotado bajo el n 247" ("Annotated under n 247"), followed by his signature and rubric; Then, the sentence of the criminal case followed ex officio against Francisco Boza for assault, robbery and force appears, in which it is noted that the prosecuting agent in the case was Telésforo Llerena and the defence attorney Andrés Angulo; the first two points that substantiate the sentence are also observed. On verso side, continues with the third and fourth point. It is in regular state of preservation with some ink-burned sections; it has original foliation "1"; it has binding marks. It uses stamped paper, on whose circular seal it says: "Sello 6°. PARA EL BIENIO DE 1861 Y 1862" (Stamp 6°. FOR THE BIENNIUM OF 1861 AND 1862"); and on the inside "Medio Real"; a seal with the National Shield inside an oval accompanies it with a thick edge; another with the inscription: "Corte Supor." and a round water seal that also has the National Coat of Arms. A vertical rubric appears in the left margin of the document.
